Things to Consider

Placement of Pall on coffin

Upon entering the church at the Baptismal Font, a white cloth called a Pall will be placed on the coffin which symbolizes our Baptism. A close family member, siblings, children or the pall bearers are encouraged to participate.

When Cremains are present

If your loved one has been cremated, their remains are usually placed in an urn. When your family arrives at church with the urn, place the urn on the table in front of the altar. You may place a picture of your loved one and/or a vase of flowers on the table with the cremains.

OT - 1 Job 19:1, 23-27a

A reading from the Book of Job

Job answered Bildad the Shuhite and said:

Oh, would that my words were written down!

Would that they were inscribed in a record:

That with an iron chisel and with lead

they were cut in the rock forever!

But as for me, I know that my Vindicator lives,

and that he will at last stand forth upon the dust;

Whom I myself shall see:

my own eyes, not another's, shall behold him;

And from my flesh I shall see God;

my inmost being is consumed with longing.

The word of the Lord.

OT - 2 Proverbs 31: 25-31

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

She is clothed with strength and dignity, and laughs at the days to come.

She opens her mouth in wisdom;
kindly instruction is on her tongue.

She watches over the affairs of her household,
and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children rise up and call her blessed;
her husband, too, praises her:
“Many are the woman of proven worth,
but you have excelled them all.”

Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Acclaim her for the works of her hands,
and let her deeds praise her at the city gates.

The word of the Lord.

OT - 3 Ecclesiastes 3:1-15

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes

There is an appointed time for everything,
and a time for every affair under the heavens.
A time to give birth, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to tear down, and a time to build.
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance.
A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them;
a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.
A time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away.
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to be silent, and a time to speak.
A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

What profit have workers from their toil?
I have seen the business that God has given to mortals to be busied about.
God has made everything appropriate to its time,
but has put the timeless into their hearts, so they cannot find out,
from beginning to end,
the work which God has done.

I recognized that there is nothing better than to rejoice and to do well during life.
Moreover, that all can eat and drink and enjoy the good of all their toil --this a gift of God.
I recognized that whatever God does will endure forever; there is no adding to it,
or taking from it.
Thus, has God done, that he may be revered.
What now is, has already been;
what is to be, already is God retrieves what has gone by.

The word of the Lord.

OT - 4 Wisdom 3:1-9. (Short form in italics)

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

*The souls of the just are in the hand of God,
and no torment shall touch them.*

*They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead;
and their passing away was thought an affliction
and their going forth from us, utter destruction.*

But they are in peace.

*For if before men, indeed, they be punished,
yet is their hope full of immortality;
Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed,
because God tried them
and found them worthy of himself.*

*As gold in the furnace, he proved them,
and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself.*

*In the time of their visitation they shall shine
and shall dart about as sparks through stubble;
They shall judge nations and rule over peoples,
and the Lord shall be their King forever.*

*Those who trust in him shall understand truth,
and the faithful shall abide with him in love:*

*Because grace and mercy are with his holy ones,
and his care is with his elect.*

The word of the Lord.

OT - 5 Wisdom 4:7-15

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

The just man, though he die early, shall be at rest.
For the age that is honorable comes not with the passing of time,
nor can it be measured in terms of years.
Rather, understanding is the hoary crown for men,
and an unsullied life, the attainment of old age.
He who pleased God was loved;
he who lived among sinners was transported – Snatched away, lest wickedness pervert his mind
or deceit beguile his soul;
For the witchery of paltry things obscures what is right and the whirl of desire transforms the innocent mind.
Having become perfect in a short while,
he reached the fullness of a long career;
for his soul was pleasing to the Lord,
therefore, he sped him out of the midst of wickedness.
But the people saw and did not understand,
nor did they take this into account.
The word of the Lord.

OT - 6 Isaiah 25: 6a, 7-9

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples.

On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,

The web that is woven over all nations;

he will destroy death forever.

The Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces;

the reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the Lord has spoken.

On that day it will be said:

“Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us!

This is the Lord for whom we looked;

let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!”

The word of the Lord.

OT – 7 Isaiah 57: 1-2

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The righteous man perishes,

and no man takes it to heart;

and devout men are taken away,

while no one understands.

For the righteous man is taken away from evil,

he enters into peace;

they rest in their beds,

each one who walked in his upright way.

The Word of the Lord.

OT - 8 Lamentations 3:17-26

A reading from the Book of Lamentations

My soul is deprived of peace,

I have forgotten what happiness is;

I tell myself my future is lost,

all that I hoped for from the Lord.

The thought of my homeless poverty is wormwood and gall;

remembering it over and over leaves my soul downcast within me.

But I will call this to mind,

as my reason to have hope:

The favors of the Lord are not exhausted,

his mercies are not spent;

they are renewed each morning, so great is his faithfulness.

My portion is the Lord, says my soul;

therefore, will I hope in him.

Good is the Lord to one who waits for him,

to the soul that seeks him;

it is good to hope in silence

for the saving help of the Lord.

The word of the Lord.

The Lord is my light and my salvation:

It is your face, O Lord, that I seek;
hide not your face from me. R.

only this do I seek:
to live in the house of the Lord
all the days in my life,
to gaze on the beauty of the Lord,
to inquire at his temple. R.

I believe I shall see the Lord's goodness
in the land of the living
Wait for the Lord; be strong;
be stouthearted, and wait for the Lord. R.

NT - 1 Romans 5:5-11

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

Hope does not disappoint,
because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts
through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

For Christ, while we were still helpless,
died at the appointed time for the ungodly.

Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person
one might even find courage to die.

But God proves his love for us
in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

How much more then, since we are now justified by his Blood,
will we be saved through him from the wrath.

Indeed, if, while we were enemies,
we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son,
how much more, once reconciled,
will we be saved by his life?

Not only that,
but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ,
through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The word of the Lord.

NT - 2 Romans 6:3-9. (Short form in italics)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

*We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that,
just as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of the Father,
we too might live in newness of life.*

For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his,
we shall also be united with him in the resurrection.

We know that our old self was crucified with him,
so that our sinful body might be done away with,
that we might no longer be in slavery to sin.

For a dead person has been absolved from sin.

*If, then, we have died with Christ,
we believe that we shall also live with him.*

*We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more;
death no longer has power over him.*

The word of the Lord.

NT - 3 Romans 8:31b-35,37-39

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

If God is for us, who can be against us?

He did not spare his own Son

but handed him over for us all,

will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?

It is God who acquits us.

Who will condemn?

It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised,

who also is at the right hand of God,

who indeed intercedes for us.

What will separate us from the love of Christ?

Will anguish, or distress or persecution, or famine,

or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?

No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things,

nor powers, nor height, nor depth,

nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The word of the Lord.

NT - 4 1 Corinthians 15:51-57

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters:

Behold, I tell you a mystery.

We shall not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed, in an instant, in the blink of an eye, at the last trumpet.

For the trumpet will sound,

the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

For that which is corruptible must clothe itself with incorruptibility, and that which is mortal must clothe itself with immortality.

And when this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality,

then the word that is written shall come about:

Death is swallowed up in victory.

Where, O death, is your victory?

Where, O death, is your sting?

The sting of death is sin,

and the power of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God who gives us the victory

through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The word of the Lord.

NT – 5 2 Corinthians 13: 11-13

A Reading from the Second Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice!

Strive for full restoration,

Encourage one another,

Be of one mind, live in peace.

And the love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with a holy kiss.

All God's people here send their greetings.

The word of the Lord.

NT – 6 Philippians 2: 3-11

A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit.

Rather, in humility value others above yourselves,

not looking to your own interests

but each of you to the interests of the others.

In your relationships with one another,

have the same mindset as Christ Jesus:

Who, being in very nature of God,

did not consider equality with God

something to be used to his own advantage;

rather, he made himself nothing

by taking the very nature of a servant,

being made in human likeness.

And being found in appearance as a man,

he humbled himself

by becoming obedient to death,

even on a cross!

Therefore, God exalted him to the highest place

and gave him the name that is above every name,

that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,

in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord

to the glory of God, the Father.

The word of the Lord.

NT – 7 Philippians 4: 4-9

A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians

Rejoice in the Lord always;

again, I say, rejoice!

Let your gentle spirit be known to all men.

The Lord is near.

Be anxious for nothing,

but in everything by prayer and supplication

with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.

And the peace of God,

which surpasses all understanding,

will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brethren, whatever is true,

whatever is honorable,

whatever is right,

whatever is pure,

whatever is lovely,

if there is any excellence and if anything is worthy of praise,

dwell on these things.

The things you have learned and received

and heard and seen in me,

practice these things,

and the peace of God will be with you.

The word of the Lord.

NT - 8 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters,
about those who have fallen asleep,
so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose,
so too will God, through Jesus,
bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive,
who are left until the coming of the Lord,
will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep.

For the Lord himself, with a word of command,
with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God,
will come down from heaven,
and the dead in Christ will rise first.

Then we who are alive, who are left,
will be caught up together with them in the clouds
to meet the Lord in the air.

Thus, we shall always be with the Lord.

Therefore, console one another with these words.

The word of the Lord.

NT – 9 2 Timothy 4: 6-8

A Reading from the Second Letter of Saint Paul to Timothy

For I am already being poured out like a drink offering,
and the time for my departure is near.

I have fought the good fight,
I have finished the race,
I have kept the faith.

Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness,
which the Lord, the righteous Judge,
will award to me on that day—and not only to me,
but also, to all who have longed for his appearing.

The word of the Lord.

NT – 10 Revelation 14: 13

A Reading from the Book of Revelation

And I heard a voice from heaven saying, blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!

“Yes,” says the Spirit,
“so that they may rest from their labors,
for their deeds follow with them.”

G - 1 Matthew 5:1-12a

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.

He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward will be great in heaven.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

G – 2 Matthew 6: 19-23

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth,
where moth and rust destroy,
and where thieves break in and steal.

But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven,
where neither moth nor rust destroys,
and where thieves do not break in or steal;
for where your treasure is,
there your heart will be also.

The eye is the lamp of the body;
so then if your eye is clear,
your whole body will be full of light.

But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness.
If then the light that is in you is darkness,
how great is the darkness!

The Gospel of the Lord.

G - 3 Matthew 11:25-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

At that time Jesus answered:

"I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth,
for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike.

Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.

All things have been handed over to me by my Father.

No one knows the Son except the Father,
and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart;
and you will find rest for yourselves.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

The Gospel of the Lord.

G - 4 Matthew 25:31-46

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to his disciples:

“When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne,
and all the nations will be assembled before him.

And he will separate them one from another,
as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

Then the king will say to those on his right,
‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father.

Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

For I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.’

Then the righteous will answer him and say, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you,
or thirsty and give you drink?

When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you?

When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?’

And the king will say to them in reply, ‘Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.’

Then he will say to those on his left, ‘Depart from me, you accursed,
into the eternal fire prepared for the Devil and his angels.

For I was hungry and you gave me no food,
I was thirsty and you gave me no drink,
a stranger and you gave me no welcome,
naked and you gave me no clothing,
ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.’

Then they will answer and say, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty
or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison,

and not minister to your needs?’

He will answer them, ‘Amen I say to you,
what you did not do for one of these least ones,
you did not do for me.’

And these will go off to eternal punishment,
but the righteous to eternal life.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

G - 5 Luke 1: 45-56

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what had been spoken to her by the Lord.

And Mary said:

My soul exalts the Lord,
and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.

For He has had regard for the humble state of His bond slave;
for behold, from this time on all generations
will count me blessed.

For the Mighty One has done great things for me;
and holy is His name.

And His mercy is upon generation after generation toward those who fear him.

He has done mighty deeds with His arm;

He has scattered those who were proud in the thoughts of their heart.

He has brought down rulers from their thrones,
and has exalted those who were humble.

He has filled the hungry with good things;
and sent away the rich empty-handed.

He has given help to Israel His servant,
in remembrance of His mercy,
as He spoke to our fathers,
to Abraham and his descendants forever.

And Mary stayed with her about three months,
and then returned to her home.

G – 6 John 3: 16-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish,
but have eternal life.

For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world,
but that the world might be saved through Him.

He who believes in Him is not judged;
he who does not believe has been judged already,
because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

The Gospel of the Lord.

G - 7 John 5:24-29

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus answered the Jews and said to them:

“Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes in the one who sent me has eternal life and will not come to condemnation,

but has passed from death to life.

Amen, amen, I say to you, the hour is coming and is now here when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God,
and those who hear will live.

For just as the Father has life in himself,

so also, he gave to his Son the possession of life in himself.

And he gave him power to exercise judgment, because he is the Son of Man.

Do not be amazed at this,

because the hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and will come out,
those who have done good deeds
to the resurrection of life, but those who have done wicked deeds
to the resurrection of condemnation.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

G - 8 John 6:37-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to the crowds:

“Everything that the Father gives me will come to me,
and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me.

And this is the will of the one who sent me,
that I should not lose anything of what he gave me,
but that I should raise it on the last day.

For this is the will of my Father,
that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him
may have eternal life,
and I shall raise him on the last day.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

G – 9 John 10: 11-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

I am the good shepherd;

the good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep.

He who is a hired hand,

and not a shepherd, who is not the owner of the sheep

sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees;

and the wolf snatches them and scatters them.

He flees because he is a hired hand and is not concerned about the sheep.

I am the good shepherd and I know My own and My own know Me, even as the Father knows Me and I know the Father;

and I lay down My life for the sheep.

I have other sheep which are not of this fold;

I must bring them also and they will hear My voice;

and they will become one flock with one shepherd.

For this reason, the Father loves Me because I lay down My life

so that I may take it again.

No one has taken it away from Me,

but I lay it down on My own initiative.

I have authority to lay it down,

and I have authority to take it up again.

This commandment I received from My Father.

The Gospel of the Lord.

G - 10 John 11:17-27 (Short form in italics)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

When Jesus arrived in Bethany, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days.

Now Bethany was near Jerusalem,
only about two miles away.

Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary
to comfort them about their brother.

When Martha heard that Jesus was coming,
she went to meet him;
but Mary sat at home.

Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here,
my brother would not have died.

But even now I know that whatever you ask of God,
God will give you.”

Jesus said to her,
“Your brother will rise.”

Martha said to him,
“I know he will rise,
in the resurrection on the last day.”

Jesus told her,
“I am the resurrection and the life;
whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live,
and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.

Do you believe this?”

She said to him,
“Yes, Lord.

I have come to believe that you are the Christ,
the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

G - 11 John 14:1-6

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Do not let your hearts be troubled.

You have faith in God; have faith also in me.

In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places.

If there were not,

would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?

And if I go and prepare a place for you,

I will come back again and take you to myself,

so that where I am you also may be.

Where I am going you know the way.”

Thomas said to him,

“Master, we do not know where you are going;

how can we know the way?”

Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life.

No one comes to the Father except through me.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

G – 12 John 15: 9-17

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Just as the Father has loved Me,
I have also loved you;
abide in My love.

If you keep My commandments,
you will abide in My love;
just as I have kept My Father's commandments
and abide in His love.

These things I have spoken to you so that My joy may be in you,
and that your joy may be made full.

This is My commandment,
that you love one another, just as I have loved you.

Greater love has no one than this,
that one lay down his life for his friends.

You are My friends if you do what I command you.

No longer do I call you slaves,
for the slave does not know what his master is doing;
but I have called you friends, for all things that I have heard from My Father I have made known to you.

You did not choose Me but I chose you,
and appointed you that you would go and bear fruit,
and that your fruit would remain,
so that whatever you ask of the Father in My name
He may give to you.

This I command you, that you love one another.
