NOTRE DAME PARISH FUNERAL INFORMATION

Dear Friend in Christ,

Please accept my sincerest condolences and know that my heart is with you and your family as you grieve the death of a loved one. On behalf of the entire Notre Dame Parish community, we extend our prayers for the death of your loved one.

In order to facilitate your planning of the funeral, we have developed this resource for you and your family. We understand that during the time of loss, it may be difficult to think through the details. We wanted to develop this resource to help you in this process.

Our parish staff is here to serve you and your family during this time of grief. Please let us know if we can help in any way.

My prayers are with you and your family. "Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:7

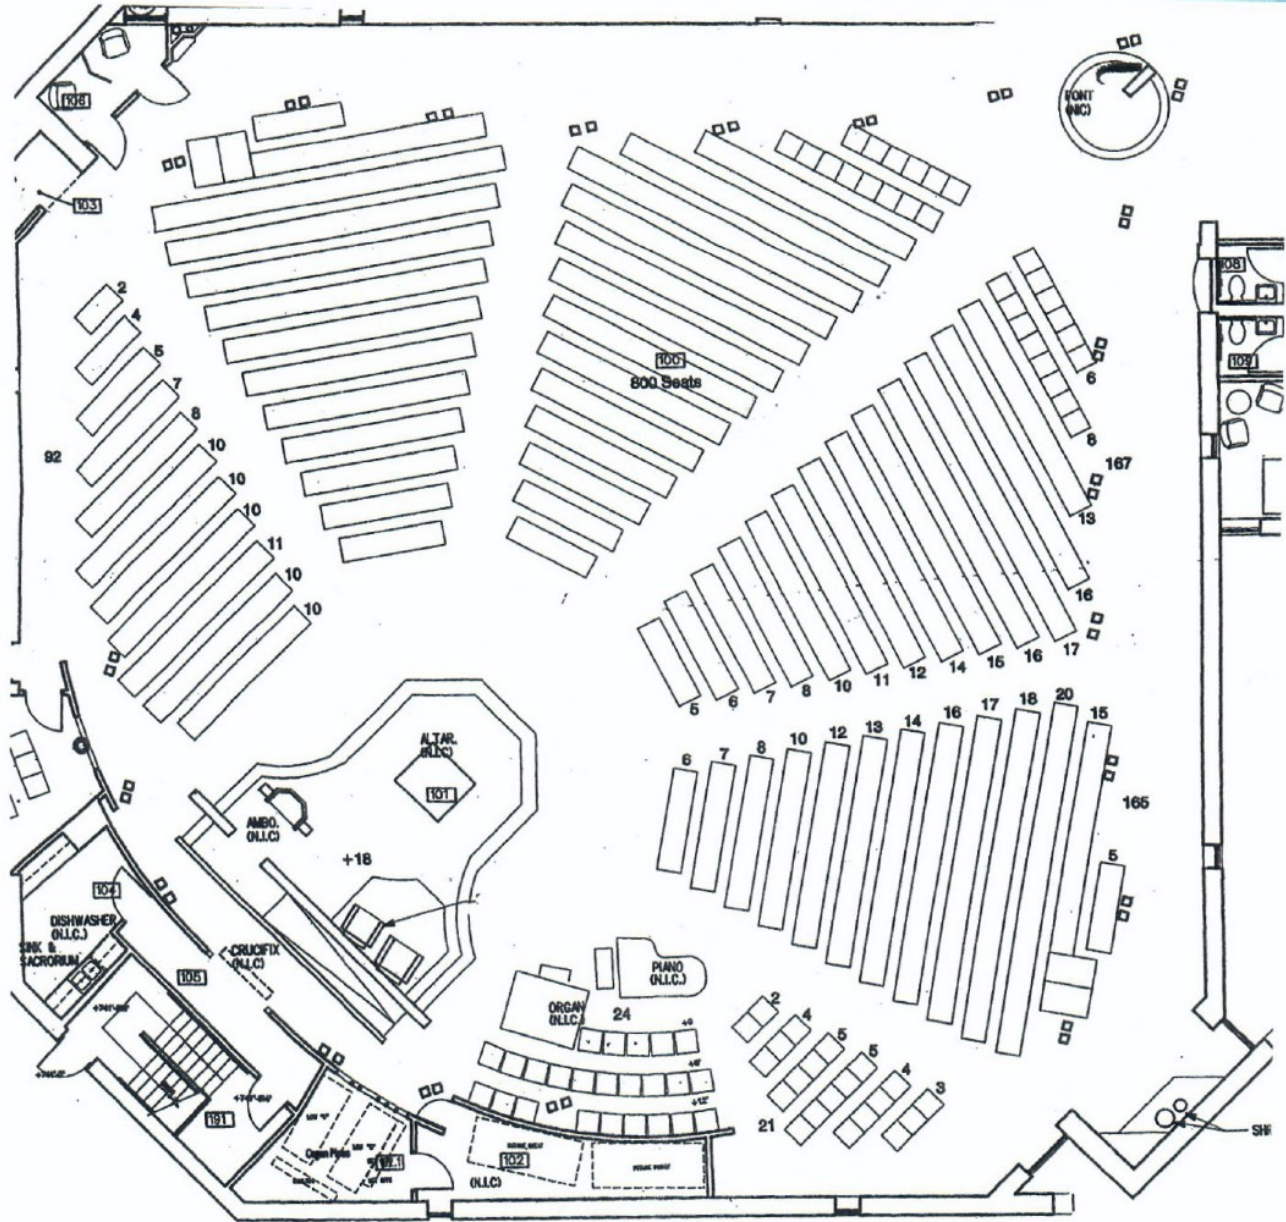

God bless,

Rev. Mark Bernhard
Pastor

Things to Consider

Placement of Pall on coffin

Upon entering the church at the Baptismal Font, a white cloth called a Pall will be placed on the coffin which symbolizes our Baptism. A close family member or the pall bearers are encouraged to participate.

When Cremains are present

If your loved one has been cremated, their remains are usually placed in an urn. When your family arrives at church with the urn, place the urn on the table in front of the altar. You may place a picture of your loved one and/or a vase of flowers on the table with the cremains.

Readings & Responsorial Psalm - Please choose one from each section.

First Reading is from the Old Testament – pages 6-14

Psalm Response – pages 15-26

Second Reading is from the New Testament – pages 27-29

Gospel from Matthew, Mark, Luke, John or The Acts of the Apostles – pages 30-36

(Read by priest or deacon only)

This is an opportunity for family members or friends to participate in the Mass. One person may be chosen to proclaim the First and Second Readings or one person per reading. (Does not include reading the Gospel)

If you do not have someone comfortable reading at Mass, a Bereavement Minister can proclaim the readings.

Universal Prayer / General Intercessions

Found on pages 37-38

This is an opportunity for family members or friends to participate in the Mass.

If you do not have someone comfortable reading at Mass, please be assured the priest or deacon will proclaim the Intercessions.

Presentation of the Gifts

An opportunity for 2 people to participate in the Mass, bringing the common elements of bread and wine to the priest for consecration into the Body and Blood of Christ. See pg. 41-42 to place names on the mass outline.

Eulogy

We encourage eulogies to take place at the wake, funeral luncheon, or at the graveside. With exception, they are allowed at Notre Dame. They should be 3-5 minutes in length; be written, and submitted to the Parish prior to the Mass. Please contact your bereavement Minister.

Music

Song selections for the Gathering, Psalm, Preparation of Gifts, Communion, Final Commendation and Closing are on pages 39-40.

OT - 1 2 Samuel 12: 16-23

A reading from the Second Book of Samuel

David therefore besought God for the child;
and David fasted,
and went in and lay all night upon the ground.
And the elders of his house stood beside him,
to raise him from the ground;
but he would not, nor did he eat food with them.
On the seventh day the child died.
And the servants of David feared to tell him
that the child was dead;
for they said,
“Behold, while the child was yet alive,
we spoke to him and he did not listen to us;
how then can we say to him the child is dead?
He may do himself some harm.”
But when David saw that his servants were whispering,
David perceived that the child was dead;
and David said to his servants,
“Is the child dead?”
They said, “He is dead.”
Then David arose from the earth and washed
and anointed himself,
and changed his clothes,
and he went into the house of the Lord and worshiped;
he then went to his own house;
and when he asked,
they set food before him and he ate.

Then his servants said to him,
 “What is this thing that you have done?
You have fasted and wept for the child
 while it was alive;
 but when the child died,
 you arose and ate food.”
He said, “While the child was still alive,
 I fasted and wept;
 for I said,
 ‘Who knows whether the Lord will be gracious to me,
 that the child may live?’
But now he is dead; why should I fast?
Can I bring him back again?
I shall go to him,
 but he will not return to me.”

OT - 3 Wisdom 4: 7-15

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

But the righteous, though they die early, will be at rest.

For old age is not honored for length of time,

or measured by number of years;

but understanding is gray hair for anyone,

and a blameless life is ripe old age.

There were some who pleased God

and were loved by him,

and while living among sinners were taken up.

They were caught up so that evil

might not change their understanding or guile deceive their souls.

For the fascination of wickedness obscures what is good,

and roving desire perverts the innocent mind.

Being perfected in a short time, they fulfilled long years;

for their souls were pleasing to the Lord,

therefore, he took them quickly from the midst of wickedness.

Yet the peoples saw and did not understand,

or take such a thing to heart,

that God's grace and mercy are with his elect,

and that he watches over his holy ones.

OT - 4 Song of Solomon 2: 10-13

A reading from the Book of the Song of Solomon

My beloved speaks and says to me:

“Arise, my love, my fair one,
and come away;
for lo, the winter is past,
the rain is over and gone.

The flowers appear on the earth,
the time of singing has come,
and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

The fig tree puts forth its figs,
and the vines are in blossom;
they give forth fragrance.

Arise, my love, my fair one,
and come away.”

OT - 5 Isaiah 65: 17-21

A reading from the Book of Isaiah

For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth;
and the former things shall not be remembered
or come into mind.

But be glad and rejoice forever in that I create;
for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing,
and her people a joy.

I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and be glad in my people;
no more shall be heard in it the sound of weeping
and the cry of distress.

No more shall there be in it an infant
that lives but a few days,
or an old man who does not fill out his days,
for the child shall die a hundred years old,
and the sinner a hundred years old shall be accursed.

They shall build houses and inhabit them;
they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

OT - 6 Jeremiah 1: 4-8

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

Now the word of the Lord came to me saying,

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
and before you were born, I consecrated you;
I appointed you a prophet to the nations.”

Then I said, “Ah, Lord God!

Behold, I do not know how to speak,
for I am only a youth.”

But the Lord said to me,

“Do not say, ‘I am only a youth;’
for to all to whom I send you,
you shall go,
and whatever I command you,
you shall speak.

Be not afraid of them,

for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.”

OT – 7 Isaiah 57: 1-2

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord:

“A voice is heard in Ramah,
lamentation and bitter weeping.

Rachel is weeping for her children;
she refuses to be comforted for her children,
because they are not.”

Thus says the Lord:

“Keep your voice from weeping,
and your eyes from tears;
for your work shall be rewarded,
and they shall come back from the land of the enemy.

There is hope for your future, says the Lord,
and your children shall come back to their own country.

OT - 8 Lamentations 3:17-26

A reading from the Book of Lamentations

My soul is bereft of peace,

I have forgotten what happiness is;

so I say, "Gone is my glory,

and my expectation from the Lord."

Remember my affliction and my bitterness,

the wormwood and the gall!

My soul continually thinks of it and is bowed down within me.

But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases;

his mercies never come to an end;

they are new every morning;

great is thy faithfulness.

"The Lord is my portion," says my soul,

"therefore, I will hope in him."

The Lord is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

It is good that one should wait quietly

for the salvation of the Lord.

Psalm 23: Shepherd Me, O God

Refrain

Verses

1. God is my shepherd, so nothing shall I want;
I rest in the meadows of faithfulness and love;
I walk by the quiet waters of peace.
2. Gently you raise me and heal my weary soul;
you lead me by pathways of righteousness and truth;
my spirit shall sing the music of your name.
3. Though I should wander the valley of death,
I fear no evil, for you are at my side;
your rod and your staff, my comfort and my hope.
4. You have set me a banquet of love in the face of hatred, crowning me with love beyond my pow'r to hold.
5. Surely your kindness and mercy follow me all the days of my life;
I will dwell in the house of my God forevermore.

Psalm 23: The Lord Is My Shepherd

Refrain

Verses

1. The Lord is my shepherd, I have all I need.
He lets me rest in green meadows.
He leads me to cool, quiet pools of fresh water.
There he revives my soul.
2. You prepare a banquet for me, a table full,
where all my foes can see me.
You anoint my head with rich oil, you have welcomed me,
and fill my cup to the brim.
3. He guides me in the way of virtue, just as he said.
Though I should walk in deepest darkness,
I will not be afraid, Lord, because you are there;
your rod and staff keep me safe.

Psalm 25: To You, O Lord

Refrain

Verses

1. Lord, make me know your ways, teach me your paths and keep me in the way of your truth, for you are God, my Savior.
2. For the Lord is good and righteous, revealing the way to those who wander, gently leading the poor and the humble.
3. To the ones who seek the Lord, who look to God's word, who live God's love, God will always be near, and will show them mercy.

Psalm 27: The Lord Is My Light and My Salvation

Psalm 27:1, 4, 7 & 8b & 9a, 13-14

The Lord is my light and my salvation:
whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
whom should I dread? R.

O Lord, hear my voice when I call;
have mercy and answer me.

It is your face, O Lord, that I seek;
hide not your face from me. R.

There is one thing I ask of the Lord,
only this do I seek:
to live in the house of the Lord
all the days in my life,
to gaze on the beauty of the Lord,
to inquire at his temple. R.

I believe I shall see the Lord's goodness
in the land of the living
Wait for the Lord; be strong;
be stouthearted, and wait for the Lord. R.

NT - 1 Romans 6:3-9

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus

were baptized into his death?

We were buried therefore with him

by baptism into death,

so that as Christ was raised from the dead

by the glory of the Father,

we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his,

we shall certainly be united with him

in a resurrection like his.

We know that our old self was crucified with him

so that the sinful body might be destroyed,

and we might no longer be enslaved to sin.

For he who has died is freed from sin.

But if we have died with Christ,

we believe that we shall also live with him.

For if we know that Christ being raised from the dead

will never die again;

death no longer has dominion over him.

NT - 2 Romans 8:14-23

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

For all who are led by the Spirit of God
are sons of God.

For you did not receive the spirit of slavery
to fall back into fear, but you have received the spirit of sonship.

When we cry, “Abba! Father!” It is the spirit himself bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God,
and if children, then heirs, heirs of God
and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time
are not worth comparing with the glory
that is to be revealed to us.

For the creation waits with eager longing
for the revealing of the sons of God;
for the creation was subjected to futility,
not of its own will but by the will of him
who subjected it in hope;
because the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the glorious liberty of the children of God.

We know that the whole creation has been groaning
in travail together until now;
and not only the creation, but we ourselves,
who have the first fruits of the Spirit;
groan inwardly as we wait for adoption
as sons, the redemption of our bodies.

NT - 3 Romans 8:18, 28, 31-32

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

I consider that the sufferings of this present time
are not worth comparing with the glory
that is to be revealed to us.

We know that in everything, God works for good with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose.

What then shall we say to this?

If God is for us, who is against us?

He who did not spare his own Son,
but gave him up for us all,
will he not also give us all things with him?

The word of the Lord

NT - 4 Romans 8:35-39

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?

Shal tribulation or distress, or persecution,
or famine, or nakedness, or peril or sword?

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors
through him who loved us.

For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels,
nor principalities, nor things present,
nor things to come, nor powers, nor height,
nor depth, nor anything else in all creation,
will be able to separate us from the love of God
in Christ Jesus our Lord.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

At that time the disciples came to Jesus saying,

“Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

And calling to him a child, he put him in the midst of them and said, “Truly, I say to you,
unless you turn and become like children,
you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Whoever humbles himself like this child,
he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me.”

“See that you do not despise one of these little ones;
for I tell you that in heaven their angels always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven.

What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray?

And if he finds it truly, I say to you,
he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. So it is not the will of my Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.”

Blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what had been spoken to her by the Lord.

And Mary said:

My soul exalts the Lord,
and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.

For He has had regard for the humble state of His bond slave;
for behold, from this time on all generations
will count me blessed.

For the Mighty One has done great things for me;
and holy is His name.

And His mercy is upon generation after generation toward those who fear him.

He has done mighty deeds with His arm;

He has scattered those who were proud in the thoughts of their heart.

He has brought down rulers from their thrones,
and has exalted those who were humble.

He has filled the hungry with good things;
and sent away the rich empty-handed.

He has given help to Israel His servant,
in remembrance of His mercy,
as He spoke to our fathers,
to Abraham and his descendants forever.

And Mary stayed with her about three months,
and then returned to her home.

G – 5 John 3:16-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son,
that whoever believes in Him shall not perish,
but have eternal life.

For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world,
but that the world might be saved through Him.

He who believes in Him is not judged;
he who does not believe has been judged already,
because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

The Gospel of the Lord

G - 6 John 6:37-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to the crowds:

“Everything that the Father gives me will come to me,
and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me.

And this is the will of the one who sent me,
that I should not lose anything of what he gave me,
but that I should raise it on the last day.

For this is the will of my Father,
that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him
may have eternal life,
and I shall raise him on the last day.”

G – 7 John 10:11-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

I am the good shepherd;

the good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep.

He who is a hired hand,

and not a shepherd, who is not the owner of the sheep

sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees;

and the wolf snatches them and scatters them.

He flees because he is a hired hand and is not concerned about the sheep.

I am the good shepherd and I know My own and My own know Me, even as the Father knows Me and I know the Father;

and I lay down My life for the sheep.

I have other sheep which are not of this fold;

I must bring them also and they will hear My voice;

and they will become one flock with one shepherd.

For this reason, the Father loves Me because I lay down My life

so that I may take it again.

No one has taken it away from Me,

but I lay it down on My own initiative.

I have authority to lay it down,

and I have authority to take it up again.

This commandment I received from My Father.

G - 8 John 14:1-6

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Do not let your hearts be troubled.

You have faith in God; have faith also in me.

In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places.

If there were not,

would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?

And if I go and prepare a place for you,

I will come back again and take you to myself,

so that where I am you also may be.

Where I am going you know the way.”

Thomas said to him,

“Master, we do not know where you are going;

how can we know the way?”

Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life.

No one comes to the Father except through me.”

Universal Prayer Intercessions / Petitions

The intercessions are read after the homily is concluded and Father says a brief prayer. There is a short pause after each intercession is read before saying, "We pray to the Lord." The person(s) reading them should speak slowly and clearly and begin by saying to the congregation:

After each Petition, please respond – Lord Hear Our Prayer.

For _____, child of God and heir to the kingdom; that he/she be held securely in God's loving embrace now and for all eternity.

We Pray To The Lord — Lord Hear Our Prayer.

For _____'s family, especially his/her mother and father, brother(s) and sister(s); that they feel the healing power of Christ in the midst of their pain and grief.

We Pray To The Lord — Lord Hear Our Prayer.

For _____'s friends and relatives; that they be consoled in their loss and strengthened in their love for one another.

We Pray To The Lord — Lord Hear Our Prayer.

For all parents who grieve over the death of their children; that they be comforted in the knowledge that their children dwell with God.

We Pray To The Lord — Lord Hear Our Prayer.

For children who have died of hunger and disease; that these little ones be seated close to the Lord at his heavenly table.

We Pray To The Lord — Lord Hear Our Prayer.
